

University of Arkansas – Personnel Data Form

It is the policy of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville to provide equal employment opportunity to all qualified persons; to prohibit discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, ethnicity, religion, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, marital or parental status, veteran's status, disability or genetic information and to promote the full realization of equal employment opportunity through a positive, continuing program of affirmative action.

We are required, as a government contractor, to keep records and perform certain analyses of our employee workforce. Since such analyses are only possible if we know the profile of employees, we are asking you to voluntarily complete this form. The Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance will only use the following self-identification information for official purposes: race, ethnicity, veteran status, disability and gender. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance at (479) 575-4019 or oeoc@uark.edu. Your cooperation is appreciated.

Form W-4 (2017)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2017 expires February 15, 2018. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you can't claim exemption from withholding if your total income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions don't apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you aren't exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2017. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Department _____

I hereby authorize the University of Arkansas to deposit my net pay and, if necessary, to make adjustments for any entries in error to my accounts(s) indicated below. The authorization will remain in effect until I have given the University of Arkansas notification of changes. I understand that if I am not paid for at least 60 days, my electronic payment will be suspended for one pay day, giving me time to confirm my information with payroll. The University of Arkansas is not responsible for the accuracy of the information provided and inaccurate information will delay the implementation of the electronic payment.

If I am currently set-up to receive personal or travel reimbursements or travel advances from the University, those funds will be electronically deposited. Indicate which bank you want for the vendor bank by circling the bank priority number. If no choice is indicated, the funds will be deposited into your "remainder" bank account.

If you are making a change, remember you must allocate all of your proceeds, do not just put down the change you would like to make.

Priority – Your pay can be disbursed to up to 6 different accounts even if they are with different financial institutions. You must attach a voided blank check or form from your financial institution for each account listed to validate the 9 digit routing number and account number. (Only if you are adding a new bank or changing an account number)

Dollar and Percent Allocation – Write in the amount or percentage you would like to go into each account, only a dollar or percent can be indicated for each account. If you split it into more than one account, the last account should always be an R, it will receive the Remainder of your net pay. Any overtime/supplemental payment will be deposited to the account with the R indicator.
